
O autor, believed to be a document relating to a request or agreement concerning the extension of land possession or some other matter, begins by addressing the distinguished authorities present.

He mentions the necessity of extending the limits of the landholdings due to the natural characteristics of the area, which have been identified as necessary for agriculture and the well-being of the community.

The author appeals to the authorities, emphasizing the importance of the lands in question for the development of the region, and requests clarification or confirmation of the boundaries and conditions for the extension.

He further expresses his concern regarding the legal obligations and the need for a clear understanding of the actions required to formalize the extension.

The document concludes with a request for a formal acknowledgment or response from the authorities, highlighting the significance of this matter for the community and its future development.

The signatory, D. Francisco Xavier da Camara, appears to hand a document to the authorities, indicating a formal presentation or submission of the request or agreement.
